08 CLIENT DECLARATION

Elects to conclude transaction differing from recommendation	No
Elects not to follow the advice furnished	No
Elects to receive more limited information/advice	No

I HEREBY ACCEPT THE ADVICE AND RECOMMENDATIONS PROVIDED TO ME AS SET OUT ABOVE.

I am aware that the advice and recommendations provided in terms of my request and instruction are limited to my short-term insurance (personal lines) portfolio only, and that a comprehensive analysis of all my financial needs was not undertaken. Due to the fact that a comprehensive analysis was not undertaken, there may be limitations concerning the appropriateness of the advice, and I must therefore carefully consider whether the product selected is appropriate considering my circumstances and needs. Where I have made any of the elections above, I confirm that the advisor has alerted me to the clear existence of any risk as a result of such election, and that I have been advised to take particular care to consider whether the products selected (if any) are appropriate to my needs, objectives and circumstances. I understand the dangers of being underinsured and that excesses under specific policies may be aggregated in certain circumstances — should my circumstances change in any way that may require a review of my existing cover, I will inform the advisor. I have read the policy documents and the attached policy schedule, and note in particular the special conditions and applicable excesses. The advisor explained to me the material terms and conditions of the policy, including any excess payment terms, conditions and exclusions, or circumstances where claims will not be paid. I did not sign the application form while any part of it was incomplete, and I take full responsibility for all information provided in the application form, whether provided by myself or on my behalf. The advisor provided quotes from the insurer which were discussed and attached to this document. I understand that for a new placement, the product selected constitutes a new placement of short-term insurance cover; for a renewal, it constitutes a renewal of my existing cover; and for a replacement, it constitutes a replacement of my existing short-term insurance cover.

Acknowledged

Client accepts the advice and recommendations set out above.
